

Texas Medical Auditors Assoc.
P.O. Box 790351
San Antonio, Texas 78246

General Information:

The purpose of the activity is to enable the learner to identify and apply information on the latest trends in health care; be introduced to some of the various key functions impacting the revenue cycle; and find ways to effectively impact reimbursement through the role of the nurse auditor. This activity has been submitted to the Arizona Nurses Association, a member of the Continuing Nursing Education Group, who is an accredited provider of CNE by the ANCCCA for 10 nursing CEUs.

11 contact hours have been requested from the Council for Certification of Medical Auditors as continuing education for Certified Medical Audit Specialist (CMAS) and 11 contact hours from the American Association of Medical Audit Specialists (AAMAS) for the Certified Clinical Financial Auditor (CCFA). The certificate for all CEU's will be emailed to the participant after verification to each session attended at the conference. Please allow 2 to 3 days after the conference for distribution.

Make certain that your email address is legible to avoid any delays.

For more information regarding contact hours, please contact Connie Vaughan, nurse planner, at connie.vaughan@memorialhermann.org.

The TMAA virtual conference is the most cost effective way to access this level of learning. There is no travel time, no hotel or travel expenses, and no business attire to wear. Just come to the computer as you want, silence your notifications, stay focused on the presenters, and learn in the comfort of your own home/office.

For any questions or issues during the virtual conference, contact Gaye McClelland at 832-248-5144

TMAA's 34th Conference
"From Infinity and Beyond....
TMAA goes Virtual"
October 1 and 2, 2020

Conference Overview:

TMAA is extremely excited to present, for the first time, a virtual seminar in order to provide you, our members, with a knowledge building activity in the safety of your home or office. Covid-19 has brought all of us challenges, and so we are doing the next best thing to help our members stay current in their professional field. We will be hosting our 2020 seminar thru ZOOM presentations.

We will have an excellent group of presenters with subjects like: Insurance Fraud, Managing Stress during a Pandemic, Ketogenic Diets, Payment Integrity and Medicare Updates to name a few topics.

For those of you who are new to online education, we are happy to offer this great introduction to online training via ZOOM. These live sessions will allow you to participate by asking questions, leave comments, and make requests and suggestions. Gaye McClellan will be our hostess and will be available if any issues arise.

This year's TMAA business meeting will include a discussion about the future of the organization.
